I saved this from a facebook post I saw.

It struck a chord with me.

We have all been in dark and scary places during our lives.

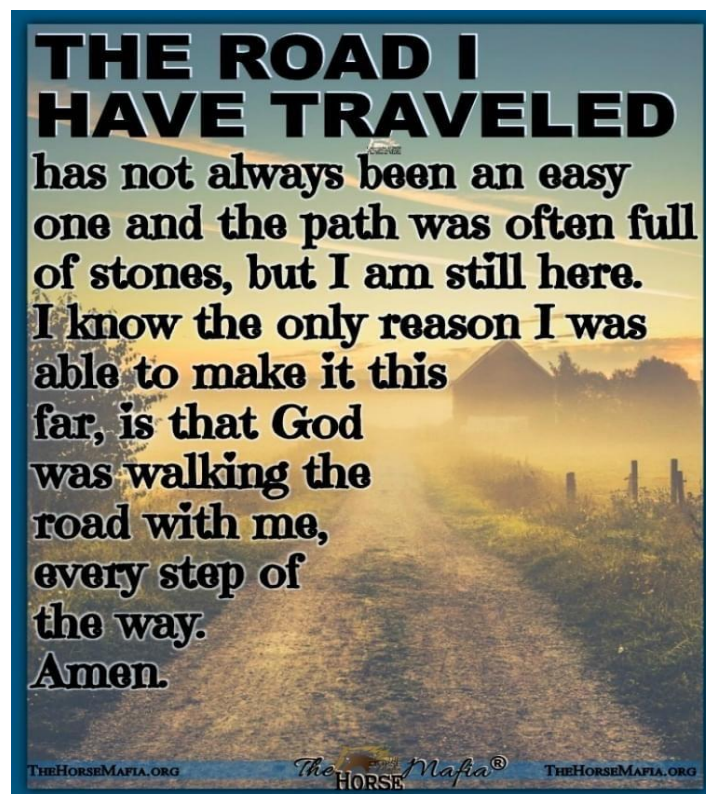

Some recent, some more distant but everyone suffers through the valleys of life.

We just celebrated Easter last month. Jesus knew the dark times.

He was abandoned by his best friends and on a path to a painfilled sacrifice.

I can only imagine how his human brain and body reacted to the fear of what was to come.

But he surely was walking with God, just as we are. and his message to us is to have faith and keep going, knowing God is beside us.

May is an M Month

By Elaine Peacock

May is an “M” month; the first one is May 1st – May Day. In olden times it was a big festival day. There was dancing in the streets or should I say dancing around the Maypole. A friend of mine said May Day was a bitter sweet day for her family. They had escaped Russia with only the clothes on their backs and a small suitcase. She told me my son was forced to march in the May Day parade and now she and her family are living the American dream.

The second “M” is for Mother’s Day; whether your mom is still with you or she has taken her place in heaven she will always be in your heart. To all you beautiful mothers out there you make the world a better place. Happy Mother’s Day!

The third “M” is for Memorial Day, when we stop to pay tribute to all the men and women who have paid the ultimate sacrifice so we can enjoy all the benefits of freedom.

So to take a moment and remember all our veterans and the future veterans who are serving now; say a prayer that they will stay safe and will come home soon.
God Bless America.

Congratulations to Tina and DJ Thompson on their recent Profession of Faith and “official” PRC membership. They have been active members long before now. We are so happy to have you as part of our family!

Congratulations

The food pantry is being utilized again and can use replenishing. Thank you to all who have helped keep the food pantry running.

Jack Tice retired in January from the role of Pompton Reformed Church Treasurer. He filled that role for many years with infinite hours, extreme detail and the mindset of a true servant of the Kingdom. Jack's care and concern for PRC have always been incomparable. But as he retires, how do you say "thank you" to such a selfless person with an extremely mission-minded heart? Here's how: Find out what one of Jack's favorite charities are and hold a fundraiser in his honor. And that is what we did. Jack's charity, Covenant House in NYC and 30 other locations, provides shelter and resources to young adults with a continuum of care that includes job training, educational opportunities, legal aid, health care, and mental health counseling.

In honor of Jack Tice, PRC and friends raised $2015 for Covenant House. Thank you, Jack, for your service to us and to our Lord!
