2023

June Already!

Almost six months from Christmas, almost 3 months from Easter. How does time pass so quickly?

I remember thinking when I was little that time was long and slow. Wait for your birthday, wait for summer,

wait for Christmas.

Waiting time is s-l-o-w!

Wait for results,

wait for decisions,

wait for relief.....

Be still and know that I am God

Psalm 46:10

I tell myself this verse when I am anxious over something I cannot control, and that is most everything!

I picked up a greeting card that says

“Good Morning,

This is God

I will be handling all your problems today.

I will not need your help.

So have a good day!

If I could instill these words in my heart

There would be less worry, less anxiety,

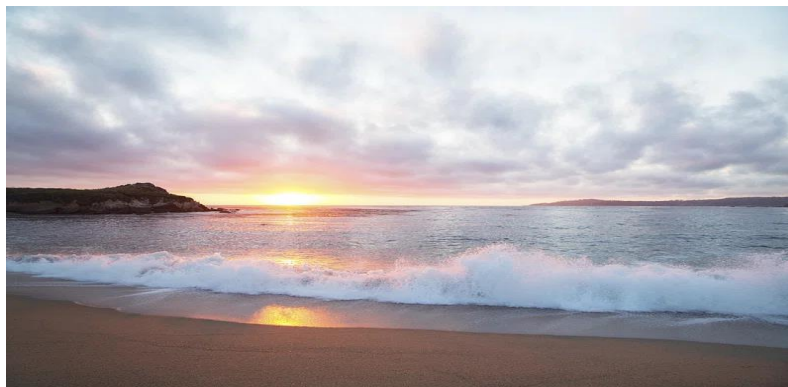

More joy, more peace and more of all that is good.

“Be still and know that I am God.

I will be exalted among the nations.

I will be exalted in the earth.”

Have a great summer....

JUNE TIME FOR DADS & GRADS

I can't believe I am writing a tribute to Dads and Grads already; but here it goes.

Dads are the special men in our lives that teach us how to ride a bike, help with your homework and any project you have been asked do for the Science Fair. When you were little Dad's shoulders helped you to see above the crowd so you wouldn't miss anything of the parade. Of course, there was usually an ice cream cone as part of whatever you were watching.

Of course the next 6 weeks or so will be a special time in our Graduates lives, whether it be preschool, kindergarten, middle school, high school or college. All the hard work is left behind and the future is in front of us motioning us to come forward and stake our claim and make our dreams come true.

So to all you Dads and Grads – may your days be as special as you and may you have A Happy Father's Day and Congratulations on your graduation.

We couldn't have done it without you!
