Vanco Online Giving – It is a good time for all who use Vanco, our online giving option, to verify or update your pledge amount and make sure it agrees with your pledge amount. Also, for every donation made Vanco charges a small amount per donation, that charge is deducted from your donation. There is an option when you go on Vanco to pay the charge yourself by just clicking on the button that says would you like to pay the charge. By doing so, the charge is absorbed by you and will not be deducted from your donation. Again, the charge is very minimal.

It is always good to make a note to yourself to check the online Vanco app to make sure everything is correct. If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to contact anyone on the Finance Committee. Thank you!

Our Library in fellowship hall is a treasure with many different genres of books: mysteries, historical novels, biographies, spiritual self-improvement, romance, devotionals, and children's books. Almost all are written by Christian authors and offer a way to both entertain and deepen our faith. Please feel free to borrow a book for yourself or for someone else. You'll find a clipboard and pen where you can sign them out. Sabine would be happy to offer a recommendation to get you started with your reading.

Thank you for your continued support of the free community dinner - The next dinner will be held on November 21, 2024. All are welcome!
